

MY BOND WITH LAGOSIANS WHY I AM INVOLVED

ABOUT

KHAIRAT ANIMASHAUN AJIBOYE

-Leadership, Pragmatism, Pacesetter,
Youthful and Womanhood.

- "Correcting what is around us would lead to a better correction of our larger environment! Let's improve our mindset to correct through 360 degrees!!!" - Khairat Animashaun-Ajiboye

Khairat Animashaun-Ajiboye was born in the 70's, first in a humble family, raised by strong-willed parentage; a task which later was bequeathed to her mother - who was interested in the successful completion of education of her children despite her material inadequacies; and a passionate father with the drive to ensure that his children got both Islamic and contemporary education. Khairat had lived in Festac Town during when she completed her primary and secondary education. She also had a taste of living on the Island before moving finally to Surulere with her family. She hails from the Animashaun Dynasty of Lagos Island; An Awori by Patrimony, A Surulerian by breed, A Lagos Westerner by birth/tradition.

Happily married with children, Khairat completed her primary at Festac Primary School, 512 Road, Festac Town Amuwo Odofin in Lagos, where she served as the time keeper. She won the overall mandate to serve as the Head Girl at Agboju secondary school Agboju, Ojo for her set due to her outstanding mental and moral outlooks. She has led her siblings through her disciplined philosophy and value-laden ideals, to be positive, selfless, givers, tenacious, gracious and thankful all the time.

Khairat attended Federal Polytechnic Ilaro, Ogun State, Nigeria for an Associate Degree in Town and Regional Planning; bagged a Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.) in Geography and Regional Planning from the Lagos State University (LASU), Nigeria from where she proceeded to Birnin-Kebbi in Kebbi State for NYSC where she served Nigeria with flying colors. She also bagged 2 Masters - an MBA with specialisation in Public Administration and a Master degree in Project Management (with distinctions), from Keller School of Management, USA. It proves that Khairat is very keen about Education, knowledge and giving back to the society. She also bagged certifications in various fields along the way including Microsoft Certifications and Real Estate Pre-Licensing among others.

She became the first female lead in roles of many organizations including LASUSUG (Secretary General), First female Publicity Secretary - Young Democratic Party (YDP); ECI (Secretary General). She has served in various organizations in capacities such as President/CEO, Executive Secretary, Secretary General, Treasurer, Area Governor, Managing Partner, Data Coordinator, Director Organization and Operations, Director for Administrative Services, Chairman, Sergeant at arms, Programs Manager, Communications Officer, National Publicity Secretary, General Secretary, Vice Chairman, Social Media Director, etc.

The organizations among others include:

1. Cyber Institute of Atlanta
2. Nigerian Intervention Movement
3. Toastmasters International
4. Organizing for America
5. Africa's Children's Fund
6. KhatCSI Inc
7. Professional Fund Raising and Grant Writers
8. Eko Club International
9. Rountree Forest HomeOwners Association
10. Positive Dynamix Inc.
11. Bank of America
12. Youth Arise to Create Harmony Initiative International (YATCH-IN)
13. Democratic Party
13. Alliance For Democracy

She has selflessly given most of her time and energy to the service of communities she finds herself and organizations and course(s) she is passionate about.

She has served for 26 years in various organizational roles. Her mantra about life is to "Use your time for the greater good of humanity".

She accommodates ALL and supports fairness.

The foregoing and aforementioned presents a vivid mental picture of a resilient achiever - who transformed from grass to grace. Her wealth of experience in Leadership, Administration and related fields of human endeavors are all added driving force to resonating pedigree for the 1st man position of this State, without any íota of doubt.

Unequivocally, with the natural blooded elements shared in the resume; Lagosians do have every cause to celebrate with unconditional acceptability, your own. Her credibility and pedigree is our "Pride"!

"Omo Oni nkan ni e je kose" (The affairs of our land is the exclusive prerogative of aborigins).

Itesiwaju Eko, Ajumose wa ni!!

